

Works launched in GU campus

Article 371 (j), a boon for Hyderabad-Karnataka people, says Kharge

KALABURAGI: Kalaburagi MP and leader of Congress party in Lok Sabha Mallikarjun Kharge has said that Article 371(j) constitution amendment act has been proved to be a boon for 1.5 crore people of Hyderabad-Karnataka region comprising six districts.

Inaugurating a number of works and laying foundation stone for a few undertaken by the Hyderabad-Karnataka Region Development Board at Gulbarga University campus here on Saturday, Kharge said that the said Article has come in handy for ushering in a bright future for the people of the area in education, employment and development. Stating that the Board was doing good works, the veteran leader underlined the need for maintaining quality in all works besides their completion as per schedule to avoid cost overrun. Kharge stressed the need for

Veteran Congress leader Mallikarjun Kharge inaugurating HKRDB works in Gulbarga University campus in Kalaburagi on Saturday. Seen with him are minister Sharanprakash Patil and VC S R Niranjana. DH PHOTO

Gulbarga University raising to the occasion by offering more and more relevant courses and opening more departments. "The university should make all efforts for dissemination of quality education and to instill self confidence among the students and youth of the region. Students should be provided timely scholarship and hostel facilities," Kharge said. The works that Kharge inaugurated and laid foundation stones include inauguration of renovated Ambedkar Bhavan, renovated Mahatma Gandhi Hall, flagging off the buses given to the university, and laying foundation stone for construction of two lane road from eastern entry Chalukya Mahadwar and minority students' hostel.

Medical Education Minister Sharanprakash Patil who is also the chairman of HKRDB said that the Board was taking up works, schemes and projects in tune with the requirements of the people of the region.

He assured that the works will be completed in time and quality will be maintained. Kalaburagi Grameen MLA G Ramakrishna presided over the function.

VCs of Gulbarga University and Central University of Karnataka Prof S R Niranjana and Prof H M Maheshwaraiiah, NEKRTC Chairman Bhimanna Sali and senior officers were present.

DH News Service

REGISTRAR
GULBARGA UNIVERSITY
GULBARGA.